MODERATOR: ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ Lawrence E. Spivak

GUEST: Sen. Stuart Symington
Peter Lisagor - Chicago Daily News

PANEL: ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~
Marqus Childs - St. Louis Post-Dispatch
Warren Rogers - Hearst Newspapers
Robert McCormick - NBC News

SPIVAK: ~~XXXXXX~~ Lawrence Spivak This is ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ inviting you to MEET THE PRESS. (Commercial)

Our guest today on MEET THE PRESS is Senator Stuart Symington, Democrat of Missouri. He is the only Senator who is a member of the two committees directly involved in the Cold War -- Foreign Relations and Armed Services. He is also a member of the Senate Space Committee. Senator Symington was the First Secretary of the Air Force. He was a candidate for the Presidential nomination in 1960. We will start the questions with Mr. Marqus Childs.

CHILDS: Senator, ^{as} ~~if~~ you know, when Averill Harriman met with Khrushchev shortly after the meeting, Khrushchev issued a statement saying that he is interested in an independent and neutral Laos, but he apparently gave no assurances at all that he would do anything to stop ^{SS80000} the Communist takeover of that ~~xxx~~ country.
